

TRT plans to launch English Channel

Turkish Radio-Television Corporation (TRT) is to speed up works to launch its third non-Turkish language channel, English, following January 2011.

In the past two years, TRT has launched two TV channels broadcasting in Kurdish and Arabic.

TRT English will greatly contribute to the promotion of ever-growing Turkey to the non-Turkish speaking countries around the world.